

CENTRAL NEW YORK

Association of Chiefs of Police

NEXT MEETING: To be announced

Meeting of December 13, 2007 at the Fireside Inn, Baldwinsville, NY.

Meeting called to order at 4:15 PM (No quorum present – severe weather conditions)

Introduction of Guests:

Sgt. Michael Asmolik, CNY Police Academy; Mike Burg – applicant for membership.

Minutes and Treasurer's Report to be carried over to January 2008 meeting as no quorum present – weather conditions prevented several members from attending.

Correspondence –

-President Spawn will attach and forward a copy of the letter sent to state representatives concerning §211 waivers per the resolution of the November 2007 meeting.

Old Business:

-Regional Training Facility: firearms/EVOC committee – President Spawn advised those in attendance that Rich Flanagan, Mike Heenan, Joe Snell and himself attended a briefing and tour of the Monroe County Public Safety Training Center last month. Details were noted in the November newsletter.

-Nomination for membership from November meeting: Chief Tom Boyce – held for January meeting as no quorum present

-President Spawn announced that the COPS Survivors training program which we advocated to be brought to Central New York was acted upon and the course will be brought to East Syracuse on March 5-7, 2008. However, for the first time in 12 years, the Department of Justice will not be funding this program. Workbooks, which are an integral component of the program, require funding in the amount of $2640. President Spawn advises that he is working with Assemblyman Will Barclay's office is attempting to locate funding for this program.

Presentation –

-Guest speaker Sgt. Mike Asmolik gave a presentation on Police Pursuit Issues for Managers and Supervisors (PPIMS). The CNY Police Academy hopes to bring this course to the academy next year.
