Correspondence –

- Thank you note received from the Todeschini's.

Presentation –

Guest speakers Arielle Bernstein and Meredith Wiley of Fight Crime Invest in Kids New York gave their presentation on the program and member agencies that have joined. The program seeks to "fix" all that is wrong with the juvenile justice system in NYS in cooperation with police agencies.

Old Business:

- Recap of the NYSACOP Conference held at Alexandria Bay in July. The event was an overwhelming success. Congratulations and certificates of appreciation given by Chief Spawn to all who assisted with the conference. With all expenses paid to date for the conference there is a deficit of $278.76 which could easily be made up with the sale of the remaining polo shirts.
- Application for membership from Capt. Mark Tartaglia, US Veteran's Affairs, received, motion to accept by Chief Ryan, second by Lt. Corey. Carried.
- Application for membership from Major Shawn Egan, NYS Unified Court System received, motion to accept by Chief Morris, second by Dep. Comm. Balloni. Carried.
- Application for membership from Chief Rod Carr, Phoenix PD received, motion to accept by Undersheriff Darby, second by Lt. Lefancheck. Carried.

New Business:

- Candidate for 3rd Vice Presidency NYSACOP Chief Margaret Ryan, Dryden Police Dept. Official motion to endorse by Chief Perkins, second by Chief Warner, carried.
- Financial support discussed for Chief Ryan's candidacy. Motion to allocate $2,000 towards Chief Ryan's run for 3rd Vice Presidency by Chief Dehm, second by Chief Perkins, carried.
- Candidates for membership – Sheriff David Gould and Undersheriff James Stowell, Cayuga County Sheriff's Dept.
- Discussion on location and dates of next meetings. October 1st and November 5th same time and location – Fireside Inn. December's meeting would be something a little different such as after work hors d'oeuvres on a Friday. Date to be determined.
- Discussion on ideas for Public Service Announcements from the CNYACOP, such as crime prevention ideas or topics.
- Fundraiser for CNYACOP on sale now – mini Chief's car models in different vehicle makes.
- Discussion/information from Rich Flanagan on a multi county training facility. Rich explained the problems and issues the academy is having with firearms training and EVOG training. This issue needs to be addressed soon for the county as the Elbridge range may not be available any longer. A thought is to build a similar training facility such as Monroe County. Financing through various grants could be a possibility. Decision to form a committee to address the issues for a training site, problem statement, ideas of would work and financing. Committee members are Undersheriff Darby, Chief Snell, Chief Dehm, D/Chief Barrette, and Director Flanagan as Chairman.
- Nominations committee formed for upcoming election. Committee Chairman Chief Morris and Co-chairman Chief Snell.
