Central New York Association of Chiefs of Police

REGIONAL AUTHOR~RETIRED TROOPER IS GUEST PRESENTER

Lt. Jason Cassalia and Chief Fran Marlowe (Manlius PD) receive signed copies of author John Brant's autobiography.

John Brant, author of the Adirondack Detective series, joined us at the June 11 meeting for a presentation on his works and a book signing. John spoke about his experiences in his career with the New York State Police, many of which are reflected in his autobiography, One Cop's Story: A Life Remembered. John is now working on his sixth book in his Adirondack Detective series. If you are a subscriber of American Police Beat, be sure to check out the article on John's writing career on page 89.

After our regular business meeting

John and his wife, Marge, sold copies of his books to members in attendance and John graciously signed copies.

For more information about John's books and his book signing schedule, go to his web site at <http://www.capital.net/com/jbrnt/start.htm>

Chief Jim Nichols (Cortland PD) looks on as John Brant signs a copy of his book.

STATE CONFERENCE NEXT MONTH!

The annual State Chiefs conference begins in about a month in Alexandria Bay. Registration begins on Sunday, July 15. Opening ceremonies on Monday will be followed by a training program on Managing the Internal Affairs Function. Other topics include Civil Service Issues, Police who Drive Drunk, GTSC Update, Retirement and Life Insurance Planning, BATF Issues and a 207-C Panel Discussion. Activities include a golf outing, barbecue, bus tour to Canada including shopping, and a dinner cruise. The annual installation banquet will wrap up the conference agenda on Wednesday. For details on the conference, go to the State Chiefs website at www.nychiefs.org.

UPCOMING EVENTS

September meeting— Arielle Bernstein, Deputy Director of Fight Crime: Invest in Kids New York is slated to be the guest presenter at our next meeting. Ms. Bernstein will present some research and findings concerning juvenile justice reform for New York.

October meeting—Al Kurek, author of The Troopers Are Coming: New York State Troopers 1917-1943 is scheduled to be our presenter at the October 1 meeting.

Mark these dates in your calendars! We will confirm the schedule and presentations as the dates get closer.

Membership News

Two nominations from our May meeting were brought for vote. Jay A. Fink, Chief of Police of the U.S. Dept. of Veteran's Affairs, Syracuse was voted into Active Membership and Charles F. Ruggiero, Jr., Chief Law Enforcement officer for the Fort Drum Police, was also elected into Active Membership. Welcome aboard!

Our Guest Speaker, John H. Briant, was reinstated as an Associate (Retired) Member of CNYACOP. John still has his 1985 CNYACOP Associate Membership card issued by President Joe Grande!

Major Sean Egan of the Fifth Judicial District Police was the guest of former CNYACOP President Jerry Neri and was nominated for membership. We expect to have Major Egan's nomination ready for vote at the September meeting.
